

Dr. Stacey-Ann Okoth, DNP, MBA, MSN, RN, NEA-BC

Dr. Stacey-Ann Okoth currently serves as senior vice president and chief nursing officer at Jefferson Health-Abington Division. Prior to this, her most recent experience was served as the vice president of patient care services and chief nursing officer for University of Pittsburgh Medical Center overseeing the UPMC Altoona and UPMC Bedford hospitals.

Prior to joining UPMC, Dr. Okoth held leadership positions at the manager, director and associate vice president levels in various service lines at Geisinger, Wellspan, Hershey Medical Center and Kaiser Permanente health systems. She currently serves as a board member on the Southwestern Pennsylvania Organization of Nurse Leaders (SWPONL) board of directors, Treasurer of the Board of the American College of Healthcare Executives (ACHE) of Central Pennsylvania and Board member for the Penn State College of Nursing Alumni Board.

Okoth graduated from Old Dominion University with a doctorate in nursing practice, holds a bachelor's in nursing from Penn State University, an MBA and MSN in nursing from Jacksonville University. She is board certified in advanced nurse executive (NEA-BC).

In 2020 Diversity MBA Magazine recognized her as being amongst the "Top 100 Executives under 50" and in 2017, Stacey-Ann was selected as one of Central Penn Business Journal's "Forty Under 40" which celebrates the region's most accomplished young business leaders who are committed to business growth, professional excellence and community service.